

SUZOHAPP and Fanatics Sportsbook Launch Retail Sports Betting Partnership in Maryland

Landover, MD.- SUZOHAPP, a world leader in the manufacturing and distribution of gaming, amusement, and sports betting products, announced their first installation of self-service sports betting terminals at the newly opened Fanatics Sportsbook, the first inside an NFL stadium, at FedExField in Landover, Maryland.

Todd Sims, Vice President of Sales Americas for SUZOHAPP commented, “Fanatics Sportsbook has tremendous momentum and is building a great reputation with consumers in the sports industry. We strongly believe they will be extremely successful in converting sports fans into sports bettors by creating a seamless betting experience using our hardware.”

The Fanatics Sportsbook spans 5,000 square feet and features eight betting windows, 21 SUZOHAPP self-service betting kiosks, 2 giant LED Video Walls, 38 TV monitors and a full-service restaurant with food options that every sports fan will enjoy. The sportsbook stands alongside the Washington Commanders Team Store, which is also operated by Fanatics, building a true super fan experience. Now in one location, fans will be able to place a sports wager, buy team merchandise and watch a game in the ultimate sports atmosphere.

“SUZOHAPP has been an integral part of our journey into the sports betting retail market,” said Ari Borod, Chief Business Officer, Fanatics Betting and Gaming. “The SUZOHAPP betting terminals look great while providing our customers with a top tier sports betting experience and we look forward to bringing their hardware to more Fanatics Sportsbook retail locations across the country later this year.”

SUZOHAPP offers a complete ecosystem of sports betting products to customize and automate the entire betting cycle for sports betting, from cashier, to bet, to payout.

“The future with Fanatics Sportsbook looks very bright and we couldn’t be more excited about our partnership and the opportunity to showcase the superior quality and user experience with our hardware with such an excellent partner as they rollout their sportsbooks nationwide” said Sims.
